

Ryan Muir

South Kingstown School Department's Teacher of the Year

On June 18, 2020, Ryan Muir was named the South Kingstown School Department's Teacher of the Year. The South Kingstown Professional Learning Community is proud to recognize Ryan Muir as the educator that encourages, cultivates, and embodies professional excellence within and beyond the classroom, and into school communities. Ryan has been the well-known and inspirational South Kingstown High School Choir and Theater Director for three years. Ryan has earned great respect and adoration from his colleagues, community, and most of all his students.

The Teacher of the Year Program has been defined as one that recognizes excellence in teaching, leading, and learning. Ryan exemplifies this.

Ryan leads his life in the classroom and beyond in a way that is both unassuming and brilliant. Please join us in celebrating Ryan's inspiration, excellence, outstanding commitment to every student while instilling a passion for the love of learning to the entire community.
